

A REFRIGERATED
— SOLUTION —

THAT KEEPS
FOOD FRESH
AND DEADLINES MET

An organic grocery retailer called upon Schneider Dedicated to keep refrigerated freight moving on time to stores nationwide.

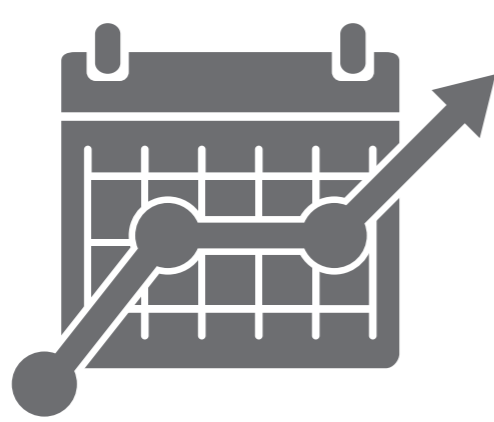

THE SITUATION

Perishable freight requires precise temperature control and tight delivery windows

The grocer's three distribution centers ship fresh food to retail locations near and far

Inbound freight surges seasonally, requiring increased capacity at intervals throughout the year

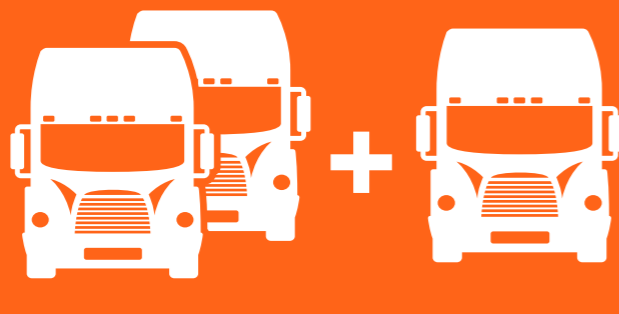

THE SCHNEIDER SOLUTION

Leveraged Schneider's extensive network to meet two-hour delivery windows while maintaining rigid control of freight temperature

Deployed dedicated team drivers to keep products moving from distribution centers to stores across the nation
