

5 MISCONCEPTIONS ABOUT PRIVATE FLEETS

Managing a private fleet costs you time and money. Here are some common misconceptions about going it alone, and why supplementing or even replacing your fleet with a dedicated carrier can help your business thrive.

MYTH 1

A PRIVATE FLEET GUARANTEES CAPACITY

REALITY

Private fleet capacity is fixed. A dedicated carrier can flex up to accommodate unexpected surges or rapid growth.

MYTH 2

PRIVATE FLEETS OUTPERFORM FOR-HIRE CARRIERS

REALITY

Dedicated drivers often have better home time and pay incentives to perform at a high level consistently.

MYTH 3

OWNED ASSETS COST LESS IN THE LONG RUN

REALITY

Private fleets require constant monitoring and upkeep, plus endless fuel and compensation costs.

MYTH 4

WE CAN MANAGE JUST FINE ON OUR OWN

REALITY

Keeping up with the complex transportation landscape requires a team of experienced, specialized experts.

MYTH 5

IF IT'S NOT BROKE, IT DOES NOT NEED FIXING

REALITY

Dedicated providers actively optimize your supply chain to shed costs and improve performance.
