

SINGLE-CARRIER SOLUTION EXCEEDS DELIVERY EXPECTATIONS

Here's how Schneider helped a sporting goods retailer surpass delivery requirements, cut operating costs and achieve long-term, on-time reliability.

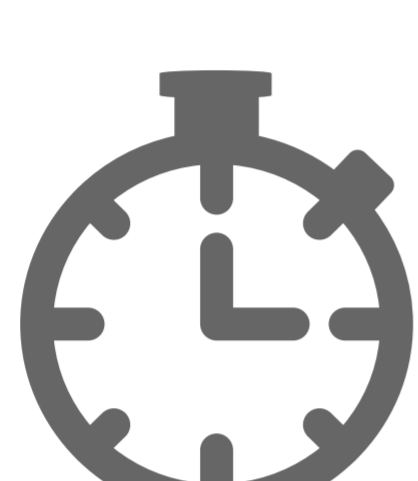

THE SITUATION

Lack of communication from multiple carriers led to greater inefficiency

With a tight delivery window, late deliveries were wasting time and money

Loads were required to meet a new on-time delivery metric of 98%

THE SCHNEIDER SOLUTION

Schneider's Dedicated team of supply chain experts set out to deliver beyond the retailer's requirements.

Proactive communication among all parties streamlined load arrivals and departures

Advanced tractor and trailer tracking technology provided accurate arrival times

A centralized network of drivers accommodated time-sensitive capacity requests
